

Festival of New Tasmanian Theatre

three daring new works by independent tasmanian artists

September 28 to October 16

Tasmanian Theatre Company

ASSOCIATES PROGRAM

tastheatre.com

Anniversary is the new play by writer, David Lander one of the creators of It's a Dad Thing, which toured Tasmania in 2006. The play takes place during the twenty-fifth anniversary dinner of Russel and Georgia, a prosperous, cultured business couple, when their opulent home is invaded.

Sept 28 - Oct 2

'Sexy and Captivating' actor and singer Allison Farrow has created In the Still of the Night - an evening with Cole Porter, which tells the story of Linda Porter, Cole's Muse, confidant and soul mate and their unconventional relationship which lasted over 30 years. Oct 5 - 9

Hot on the heels of her global success with short film the Room at the Top of the Stairs, writer/director Briony Kidd returns to the stage with Death by Television. A man finds that his life is falling apart after being in the studio audience of a vapid talk show. A black comedy about pop culture and the individual.

Oct 12-16

THEATRE ROYAL BACKSPACE

Wednesday - Saturday @ 8.15pm

+ 2 shows on Sunday @ 2.15pm & 6.15pm

Tickets: $15 - $29

Buy a FESTIVAL PASS to all 3 shows & save 25%

Theatre Royal Box Office: 6233 2299

www.tastheatre.com